

What About Medications?

We have experience giving a wide variety of medications, should your dog need them during boarding. You just need to send along the medication and give us specific directions for dosage. We will also need you to give us information about what the medication is for (e.g., Antibiotics for ear infection that's clearing up, Eye drops for lubrication, Steriod for skin allergies, etc.) and who your local vet is should there be any questions.

